The main point of attack, not only by the weeklies, but in the clubs and elsewhere; is the provision for the exclusion of the Irish memhers from the Imperial Parliament at Westminster, the indefiniteness of the finance and customs plauses and the vague character of easy to magnify these objections to Gladstone's Chinese. proposals beyond their true value. For my part, unable to form a stable ministry. A Salisbury labour nor American civilization. Government is the only alternative. Such a ministry would probably have to face an early defeat and appeal to the country for a big majority on the Irish cry. It is doubtful whether the Liberals will accept such an alternative, especially in view of the probability that gircumstances may compel Salisbury to prepare a bigger scheme even than Gladstone's. Such a de-

New York, 12th April. The Post's London special says: - 1 sensation has been caused by the sudden right-about-face of the Daily News, the Ministerial organ, and the only London journal supporting Gladstone's Home rule scheme. This is what the New's editorial says this morning :- "The state of Ireland during the past ten years, the brutal murders, the houghing of cattle, cowardly boycotting and the general state of terrorism in which society has lived, owing to the machinations of scoret assassins, have aroused a feeling of deep indignation and disgust in English minds. Beyond this, is the conduct of the Irish members of the House of Commons. A nation that has seen the traditions of its historical Parliament traduced, its authority defied, and the House of Commons turned into a bear garden in the name of Home Rule, can scarcely be expected enthusiastically to espouse a cause so tainted. We are constrained to admit our conviction that the country is not yet ripe for Home Rule in Ireland. We regard Gladstone's scheme as one of the most consummate pieces of constructive statesmanship presented by even the author of the series of Irish Land Acts which have delivered Ireland from the members of an alien church, but we do not conceal our belief that though the measure may pass its first or second reading, it cannot, unless a remarkable change takes place in public opinion, become a ESTIMATES OF THE VOTE.

POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addresses need do is to note on the cover, Sent to --- or Received at 7 p.m. or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is mistake to let such matters pass for ear giving trouble; a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.

LOCAL DELIVERY.—No delivery is attempted on board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdeon, &c., nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearest a which delivery can be effected.

The Postal Guide for 1886, revised to date will be found in the Daily Press Directory. p. 385 large edition, p. 701 small edition. This is the only authorised complete Summary of Postal information published in Hongkong.
